

ing so many projects as to exceed the available technical, administrative and financial resources,

Recognizing that the extent of activity is determined by the programme decisions and by the budgetary appropriations of the United Nations and the specialized agencies,

Declaring that the resources placed at the disposal of the United Nations and the specialized agencies should be applied where they are most needed,

1. Requests each specialized agency to review its 1952 programme during 1951, using the criteria set forth in the report³ of the Co-ordination Committee as approved by the Economic and Social Council;

2. Requests the Economic and Social Council and the specialized agencies to indicate, when new projects are adopted, which current projects may be deferred, modified or eliminated to ensure that the economic and social work of the United Nations and the specialized agencies will be carried on most effectively;

3. Requests the Economic and Social Council:

(a) To review, during 1951, the 1952 programmes of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, using the criteria set forth in the report of the Co-ordination Committee as approved by the Economic and Social Council;

(b) To seek, in reviewing the programmes, the assistance of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on the administrative and financial aspects of this matter;

(c) To report to the sixth session of the General Assembly on the results of these reviews;

4. Requests the Secretary-General, in co-operation with the administrative heads of the specialized agencies, to include in annex IV to the Secretary-General's budget estimates a summary schedule of the estimated costs of the projects provided for in the budgets of the United Nations and of the specialized agencies; and, further,

Having noted the steps taken and progress made by the Economic and Social Council, the Secretary-General, the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination and the specialized agencies,

5. Urges that the efforts which are being made to ensure the fullest co-ordination of the programmes and activities of the United Nations and the specialized agencies be vigorously pursued.

314th plenary meeting,
1 December 1950.

414 (V). Membership in the specialized agencies

The General Assembly,

Considering the principle of international co-operation as an important condition for the full success of the activities of the specialized agencies,

Noting that some of the specialized agencies do not enjoy participation of all Member States in their work,

³ See documents E/1810 and E/1810/Corr.1.

⁴ See document A/C.2&3/93—A/C.5/375, annex II.

Expresses the hope that those Members not participating at the present time may find their way to assume or resume, as soon as possible, full participation in the specialized agencies.

314th plenary meeting,
1 December 1950.

415 (V). Transfer of functions of the International Penal and Penitentiary Commission

The General Assembly,

Noting resolutions 262 B (IX) and 333 H (XI) of the Economic and Social Council and the resolution⁴ adopted by the International Penal and Penitentiary Commission on 12 August 1950,

1. Approves the plan contained in the report prepared by the Secretary-General, in consultation with the International Penal and Penitentiary Commission, concerning the transfer of the functions of the Commission to the United Nations and which is annexed to the present resolution;

2. Notes the decision of the Commission with respect to its residual assets;

3. Expresses its appreciation to the Commission for donating its library and its archives to the United Nations on the conditions specified in the above-mentioned plan;

4. Notes that these arrangements do not involve the assumption by the United Nations of responsibility for any liabilities of the Commission;

5. Authorizes the Secretary-General of the United Nations, in consultation with the Secretary-General of the International Penal and Penitentiary Commission, to make arrangements for the transfer of the functions of the Commission and of its library and archives to the United Nations on a mutually satisfactory date prior to 31 December 1951;

6. Pays tribute to the accomplishments of the Commission, during the long period of its existence, in the field of the prevention of crime and the treatment of offenders.

314th plenary meeting,
1 December 1950.

ANNEX

Plan^a prepared by the Secretary-General of the United Nations in consultation with the International Penal and Penitentiary Commission:

(a) All Members of the United Nations, and all existing members of the International Penal and Penitentiary Commission (IPPC) which are not Members of the United Nations, and any other States designated by the Economic and Social Council, shall be invited by the Council to appoint one or more representatives of expert qualifications or experience, professional or scientific, in the field of the prevention of crime and the treatment of offenders. The experts so appointed shall act in the first instance as individual correspondents with the United Nations Department of Social Affairs.
