

Bearing in mind Security Council resolution 862 (1993) of 23 August 1993, in which the Council approved the dispatch of an advance team of no more than thirty persons to assess requirements and prepare for the possible dispatch of both the civilian police and the military assistance components of the proposed United Nations Mission in Haiti and decided that the mandate of the advance team would expire within one month,

Bearing in mind also Security Council resolution 867 (1993) of 23 September 1993, by which the Council authorized the establishment and immediate dispatch of the Mission for a period of six months subject to the proviso that it would be extended beyond seventy-five days only upon a review by the Council to be based on a report from the Secretary-General indicating whether or not substantive progress had been made towards the implementation of the Governors Island Agreement⁴⁷ and the political accords contained in the New York Pact,⁴⁸

Bearing in mind further Security Council resolution 905 (1994) of 23 March 1994, by which the Council extended the mandate of the Mission until 30 June 1994,

Recalling its decision 48/477 of 23 December 1993 on the financing of the Mission,

Reaffirming that the costs of the Mission are expenses of the Organization to be borne by Member States in accordance with Article 17, paragraph 2, of the Charter of the United Nations,

Recalling its previous decision regarding the fact that, in order to meet the expenditures caused by the Mission, a different procedure is required from the one applied to meet expenditures of the regular budget of the United Nations,

Taking into account the fact that the economically more developed countries are in a position to make relatively larger contributions and that the economically less developed countries have a relatively limited capacity to contribute towards such an operation,

Bearing in mind the special responsibilities of the States permanent members of the Security Council, as indicated in General Assembly resolution 1874 (S-IV) of 27 June 1963, in the financing of such operations,

Mindful of the fact that it is essential to provide the Mission with the necessary financial resources to enable it to fulfil its responsibilities under the relevant resolutions of the Security Council,

1. Reaffirms the importance of the role of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions as an advisory body to the General Assembly in the budget process;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to take all necessary action to ensure that the United Nations Mission in Haiti is administered with a maximum of efficiency and economy;

5. Decides to appropriate to the Special Account referred to in its decision 48/477 the amount of 1,383,000 United States dollars gross (1,364,000 dollars net), authorized and apportioned by the Assembly in its decision 48/477, for the operation of the Mission for the period from 23 September 1993 to 22 March 1994;

6. Decides also to appropriate to the Special Account, in accordance with the recommendation of the Advisory Committee in its oral report, a total amount of 143,700 dollars gross (138,100 dollars net) for the operation of the Mission for the period from 23 March to 30 June 1994;

7. Decides further, as an ad hoc arrangement, to apportion the amount of 143,700 dollars gross (138,100 dollars net), for the period from 23 March to 30 June 1994, among Member States in accordance with the composition of groups set out in paragraphs 3 and 4 of Assembly resolution 43/232 of 1 March 1989, as adjusted by the Assembly in its resolutions 44/192 B of 21 December 1989, 45/269 of 27 August 1991, 46/198 A of 20 December 1991 and 47/218 A of 23 December 1992 and its decision 48/472 A of 23 December 1993, and taking into account the scale of assessments for the years 1992, 1993 and 1994 as set out in Assembly resolutions 46/221 A of 20 December 1991 and 48/223 A of 23 December 1993 and Assembly decision 47/456 of 23 December 1992;

9. Authorizes the Secretary-General to enter into commitments for the Mission at a rate not to exceed 44,200 dollars gross (42,500 dollars net) per month for a period of up to six months beyond 30 June 1994, should the Security Council decide to extend the mandate of the Mission beyond that date, the said amount to be apportioned among Member States in accordance with the scheme set out in the present resolution;

10. Requests the Secretary-General to submit, no later than 31 August 1994, the performance report for the mandate period ending 30 June 1994 and the budget estimates corresponding to any new mandate period the Security Council may decide on;

11. Invites voluntary contributions to the Mission in cash and in the form of services and supplies acceptable to the Secretary-General, to be administered, as appropriate, in accordance with the procedure established by the General Assembly in its resolutions 43/230 of 21 December 1988, 44/192 A of 21 December 1989 and 45/258 of 3 May 1991;

48/248. Financing of the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the financing of the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda⁵³ and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,⁵⁴

Bearing in mind Security Council resolution 872 (1993) of 5 October 1993, by which the Council established the Assistance Mission for a period of six months, until 4 April 1994, subject to the proviso that it would be extended beyond the initial ninety days only upon a review by the Council based on a report from the Secretary-General as to whether or not substantive progress had been made towards the implementation of the Peace Agreement between the Government of the Rwandese Republic and the Rwandese Patriotic Front,⁵⁴ signed at Arusha, United Republic of Tanzania, on 4 August 1993,

Bearing in mind also that in the same resolution the Council approved the proposal of the Secretary-General that the United Nations Observer Mission Uganda-Rwanda, established by the Council in resolution 846 (1993) of 22 June 1993, be integrated within the Assistance Mission,

Noting that the integration of the Observer Mission within the Assistance Mission is purely administrative in nature and that it will in no way affect the mandate of the Observer Mission as set out in Security Council resolution 846 (1993),

Bearing in mind further Security Council resolution 893 (1994) of 6 January 1994, in which the Council reaffirmed its approval of the
