Adoption of the agenda

2. Rule 7 of the rules of procedure provides that the agenda shall be adopted at the beginning of each session, after the election of officers, on the basis of the provisional agenda. The provisional agenda for the present session of the Sub-Commission is contained in document E/CN.4/Sub.2/2002/1. It is based on the list of draft provisional items for the agenda of the fifty-third session of the Sub-Commission as contained in its decision 2000/120.

3. Pursuant to Sub-Commission resolution 1995/26 (para. 1) and Commission on Human Rights resolution 1995/86, the human rights of women and girl children are to be considered under all items of the agenda.

Organization and methods of work

4. At its forty-sixth session, the Sub-Commission, in its decision 1994/103, decided to observe a minute of silence in honour of victims of all forms of violations of human rights in all regions of the world, at the commencement of its annual sessions.

5. At its thirty-fourth and subsequent sessions, the Sub-Commission established a sessional working group to assist it in relation to its annual review of developments concerning the human rights of persons subjected to any form of detention or imprisonment. By its decision 1994/104, the Sub-Commission decided, inter alia, to establish a sessional working group on the administration of justice and the question of compensation in place of a sessional working group on detention. (See also paragraph 18 below.)

6. By its resolution 2001/3, the Sub-Commission decided to extend, for a three-year period, the mandate of the sessional working group of the Sub-Commission established to examine the working methods and activities of transnational corporations, and requested the working group to submit its report on its fourth session to the Sub-Commission at its fifty-fourth session. (See also paragraphs 25-27 below.)

7. When considering the organization of its work, the Sub-Commission may wish to refer to the annex to its decision 1999/114 containing the guidelines for the application by the Sub-Commission of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council and other decisions and practices relating thereto. The attention of the Sub-Commission is also drawn to the decisions it adopted at its fifty-first session concerning the organization of its work (see E/CN.4/2001/2-E/CN.4/Sub.2/2000/46, paras. 18-26), in particular those relating to the limitation of the frequency and duration of statements (paras. 18-20 and 25-26), the opening and closure of the list of speakers (paras. 21-22) and the submission of draft resolutions (para. 23).

8. In its decision 2000/109 entitled "Enhancing the effectiveness of the mechanisms of the Commission on Human Rights", the Commission decided to approve and implement comprehensively and in its entirety the report of the intersessional open-ended Working Group on Enhancing the Effectiveness of the Mechanisms of the Commission on Human Rights (E/CN.4/2000/112) which was annexed to that decision. - (b) Mainstreaming a streamlined agenda;
- (c) Holding its discussions of its working rules, procedures and timetable in closed meeting;
- (d) Drafting as many of its resolutions as possible in closed session, in view of the limited time available.

11. The Commission reiterated that the Sub-Commission should further improve its methods of work by:

- (a) Focusing on its primary role as an advisory body to the Commission, specifically when its advice is requested by the Commission;
- (b) Giving particular attention to the selection of studies specifically recommended by the Commission, and at the same time focusing on how and when the implementation of existing standards could be improved;
- (c) Respecting strictly the highest standards of impartiality and expertise, and avoiding acts, which would affect confidence in the independence of its members;

- (e) Giving full consideration to studies and working papers by special rapporteurs and its members before sending them to the Commission;
- (f) Taking steps to accomplish its work within a three-week session;

At its fifty-sixth session, the Commission on Human Rights, in its resolution 2000/63, requested the Sub-Commission to undertake a study on the issue of human rights and human responsibilities and to submit an interim study to the Commission on Human Rights at its fifty-seventh session and a complete study to the Commission at its fifty-eighth session.

130. At its fifty-second session, the Sub-Commission, in its decision 2000/111, decided to appoint Sub-Commission member Miguel Alfonso Martínez to undertake a study on the issue of human rights and human responsibilities and to request the Commission at its fifty-seventh session to recommend that the Economic and Social Council authorize Mr. Alfonso Martínez to undertake the study and to submit a preliminary report to the Commission at its fifty-eighth session and a final report at its fifty-ninth session. In its decision 2001/115, the Commission on Human Rights approved the above recommendation of the Sub-Commission.

131. In its decision 2002/110, the Commission on Human Rights, having discussed the preliminary report (E/CN.4/2002/107) submitted, in accordance with Economic and Social Council decision 2001/285, by the Special Rapporteur on Human Rights and Human Responsibilities, Mr. Miguel Alfonso Martínez, decided to take note of the preliminary report and to recommend the following draft decision to the Council for adoption:
