Consejo de Derechos Humanos

24º período de sesiones

Tema 1 de la agenda

Cuestiones de organización y de procedimiento

Elección de miembros del Comité Asesor del Consejo de Derechos Humanos*

Nota del Secretario General

1. Conforme a la resolución 5/1 del Consejo de Derechos Humanos, los miembros del Comité Asesor del Consejo de Derechos Humanos, compuesto por 18 expertos que actúan a título personal y cuyas candidaturas son propuestas por los Estados Miembros de las Naciones Unidas tras la celebración de consultas con sus instituciones nacionales de derechos humanos y con organizaciones de la sociedad civil, serán elegidos por el Consejo, en votación secreta, de la lista de candidatos que se hayan propuesto con arreglo a los requisitos acordados.
2. La distribución geográfica de los miembros será la siguiente: a) 5 de Estados de África; b) 5 de Estados de Asia; c) 2 de Estados de Europa Oriental; d) 3 de Estados de América Latina y el Caribe; y e) 3 de Estados de Europa Occidental y otros Estados.
3. En su séptimo período de sesiones, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos eligió a los 18 miembros del Comité Asesor, 4 de ellos por un mandato de un año, 7 por un mandato de dos años y 7 por un mandato de tres años.
4. En su 13º período de sesiones, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos reeligió por otro período de tres años a seis miembros y eligió a un nuevo miembro del Comité Asesor del Consejo de Derechos Humanos. Según lo dispuesto en la decisión 18/121 del Consejo, el mandato de los siete miembros finalizará el 30 de septiembre de 2013.
5. En su 24º período de sesiones, de conformidad con su programa de trabajo anual, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos elegirá a los miembros del Comité Asesor que ocuparán 7 puestos vacantes. De las 7 vacantes, 2 son para los Estados de África y 2 para los Estados de Asia, y hay 1 vacante para los Estados de Europa Oriental, 1 para los Estados de América Latina y el Caribe y otra para los Estados de Europa Occidental y otros Estados.
6. En su sexto período de sesiones, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos aprobó la decisión 6/102 sobre el seguimiento de su resolución 5/1, en la que expuso los requisitos técnicos y objetivos para la presentación de candidaturas, que incluyen: a) competencia y experiencia reconocidas en la esfera de los derechos humanos; b) gran integridad moral; y c) independencia e imparcialidad.

* La información contenida en el anexo del presente informe se distribuye como se recibió, únicamente en el idioma en que se presentó.

7. Al seleccionar a los candidatos, los Estados deben aplicar las siguientes directrices sobre los requisitos técnicos y objetivos para la presentación de sus candidatos:

- a) Competencia y experiencia:
 - i) Estudios académicos en derechos humanos o esferas conexas o experiencia y conocimiento de las funciones de liderazgo en materia de derechos humanos a nivel nacional, regional o internacional;
 - ii) Experiencia sustancial (por lo menos cinco años) y contribuciones personales en la esfera de los derechos humanos;
 - iii) Será preferible que el candidato tenga conocimientos del sistema de las Naciones Unidas y de los mandatos y las políticas institucionales relacionados con la labor en la esfera de los derechos humanos, así como conocimiento de los instrumentos, las normas y las disciplinas internacionales relativos a los derechos humanos y familiaridad con los distintos ordenamientos jurídicos y las distintas culturas;
 - iv) Dominio práctico de por lo menos uno de los idiomas oficiales de las Naciones Unidas;
 - v) Tiempo suficiente para cumplir la labor del Comité Asesor de manera efectiva, asistiendo a sus períodos de sesiones y desarrollando las actividades encomendadas al Comité entre períodos de sesiones;
- b) Gran integridad moral;
- c) Independencia e imparcialidad: quedarán excluidas las personas que ocupen cargos de decisión en gobiernos o en cualquier organización o entidad que pudieren dar lugar a un conflicto de intereses con las responsabilidades inherentes al mandato; los miembros elegidos del Comité Asesor actuarán a título personal;
- d) Otras consideraciones: se respetará el principio de no acumulación simultánea de funciones de derechos humanos.

8. Al elegir a los miembros del Comité Asesor, el Consejo de Derechos Humanos prestará la debida atención al equilibrio de género y a una adecuada representación de diferentes civilizaciones y sistemas jurídicos.

9. De conformidad con el párrafo 71 de la resolución 5/1 del Consejo de Derechos Humanos, la lista de candidatos se cerrará dos meses antes de la fecha de la elección, y la Secretaría pondrá dicha lista y la información pertinente a disposición de los Estados miembros y del público por lo menos un mes antes de la elección.

10. El 12 de abril de 2013, la Secretaría del Consejo de Derechos Humanos dirigió una nota verbal a los coordinadores regionales interesados para alentar a la presentación de propuestas de candidaturas y los informó de que la fecha límite para la presentación de candidaturas era el 14 de junio de 2013, fecha que posteriormente se aplazó varias veces¹.

11. Al 4 de agosto de 2013, la Secretaría había recibido de los Gobiernos de China, España, la Federación de Rusia, el Japón, Suiza y Uganda seis candidaturas para la elección de 2013 a los puestos de miembro del Comité Asesor.

Function and activities as a member of the Committee against Torture of United Nations (2001–2013)

Member of the Committee against torture of United Nations elect by the States Parties of the Convention against torture of 1984, successively for the four year periods: 2001–2005, 2005–2009 and 2009–2013. Chairman elect for the period 2003–2005.

Along his Chairmanship, he pushed the Committee ahead to adopt decisions aimed to improve the participation within its tasks of the N.G.O. of Human rights. Besides, he inspired the adoption of some renovating decisions like those related with the utilization by States Parties of the so called “Diplomatic assurances” in cases of deportation of foreigners to a country of risk (Case Agiza).

He has been the main Rapporteur of the relevant General Observation number 2 on the application and interpretation of the article 2 of the Convention, which establishes the general obligation of the States Parties to prevent torture and inhuman treatments, adopting all the necessary measure for getting this objective. The General Observation was finally adopted by the Committee in 2007.

He has been the First Rapporteur on about 25 periodic rapports presented by State Parties, specially the complex ones presented by United States of America (2nd Rep. 2006), Israel (4th Rep.2009), Japan (1st and 2nd Rep. 2006 and 2013), Mexico (4th rep. 2006 and 5th and 6th Rep, jointly, 2012) and Colombia (3rd Rep. 2003 and 4th Re. 2009) and Colombia.

Since 2005 he has acted as Rapporteur of the Committee for the new claims and interim measures. Acting as such, he has had to decide, always urgently, on the granting to individual claimants of provisional measures of protection, specially those ones of non refoulement. He has demanded in more than 200 cases, these provisional measures, under the final control of the Committee.

As Head of it, he directed the Inquiry Mission of the Committee (ex article 20 of the Convention) to investigate and report on the situation of the implementation of the prohibition of torture and other inhuman treatments in prisons and other places of privation of freedom in Brazil. The Report (CAT/C/39/2) and the State Party’s answer to it were published. The dialogue with the State Party was very fruitful and it helped the State to implement the Committee’s recommendations.

As Head of it, he has also directed the Inquiry Mission recently sent to Lebanon to investigate the implementation by the State of the prohibition of torture and inhuman treatments in any place of privation of freedom. (7 to 18 April 2013). The Final Report is to be prepared.
