6. Please clarify whether data related to child trafficking and killing or injuring of children is classified as a State secret in mainland China.
7. Please specify the reasons for the delay in the establishment of an independent Children's Commission in Hong Kong, China, despite the Legislative Council's June 2007 motion and a subsequent appeal by the Panel on Constitutional Affairs to set up such a Commission in May 2009.
8. Please inform the Committee of the mechanisms put in place by the State party to consult and involve children and their families from the Tibet Autonomous Region in the planning and implementation of large-scale construction and infrastructure projects, in particular projects with a potentially negative impact on children's rights, including their right to culture.
9. In light of the Committee's previous concluding observations (CRC/C/CHN/CO/2, paras. 29 and 42), please clarify what measures have been taken, including through revision of family planning laws and policies, to prohibit and prevent female infanticide, forced abortion, non-registration and abandonment of girls and children with disabilities.
