2024 Meeting

Geneva, 16-18 December 2024

Item 8 of the provisional agenda

Progress with universalization of the Convention

Report on universalization activities^{*,,}

Summary

The Seventh Review Conference decided to request the Chairperson of the Meeting of States Parties to prepare an annual report on universalization activities (BWC/CONF.VII/7, Part III, paragraph 29), and the Eighth and Ninth Review Conferences decided to continue this practice (BWC/CONF.VIII/4, Part III, paragraph 8 and BWC/CONF.IX/9, Part II, paragraph 22). This document outlines the results to date of the activities to promote universalization of the Biological Weapons Convention undertaken by the Implementation Support Unit (ISU) and the United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs (UNODA) in 2024. It also includes information from States Parties and different organizations, where that information has been provided. The Convention currently has 187 States Parties (listed in the Annex), with four signatories and six States having neither signed nor ratified. A total of ten States are therefore not party to the Convention.

* The designations employed and the presentation of material in this report, including the numbers cited, do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever concerning the legal status of any country or territory or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers.

 Submitted by the Secretariat to comply with the deadline set by the United Nations Office at Geneva for translation of official documents and to ensure availability in all official languages prior to the Meeting. This document is provisional and will be considered by the Meeting of States Parties and amended if necessary. Any amendments will be reflected in a revised version.

 This document was scheduled for publication after the standard publication date due to consultations with interested parties and stakeholders.

I. Introduction

1. During the reporting period, two States, the Federated States of Micronesia and Tuvalu, have joined the Biological Weapons Convention (BWC). The Convention therefore currently has 187 States Parties, with four States having signed but not ratified the Convention and six States having neither signed nor ratified the Convention. This report outlines information available about these ten States.

II. Activities to promote universalization

2. The following universalization activities have been undertaken and reported to the Implementation Support Unit (ISU) during 2024:

(a) The United States of America informed the Implementation Support Unit that it continues to pursue the universalization of the Convention with every opportunity to engage those countries that are not yet Party to the Convention. It noted that the United States' commitment is evidenced by its robust financial support to the Global Partnership's "Signature Initiative to Mitigate Biological Threats in Africa" in support of the universalization and effective implementation of the Convention in the continent. Additionally, the United States informed the Implementation Support Unit that, during 2024, it had formally and informally engaged the governments of Chad, Comoros, Kiribati, the Federated States of Micronesia and Tuvalu. Thanks to the joint work with UNODA and the European Union, the United States noted that it was honoured to welcome the accession of two new States Parties, Tuvalu and the Federated States of Micronesia;

(b) The ISU remained in close and regular contact with the African Union (AU), the European Union (EU), the Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD), the Caribbean Community (CARICOM), the Committee established pursuant to United Nations Security Council resolution 1540 (2004), the United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs (UNODA) UNSCR 1540 Support Unit, including its Regional Coordinators for Africa and Asia, the Verification Research, Training and Information Centre (VERTIC), as well as UNODA's Regional Centres for Africa (UNREC), Latin America and the Caribbean (UNLIREC) and Asia and the Pacific (UNRCPD) to coordinate mutual universalization efforts;

(c) On 18 January 2024, Ms. Izumi Nakamitsu, Under-Secretary-General and High Representative for Disarmament Affairs met with the Permanent Representatives of the Federated States of Micronesia, Kiribati and Tuvalu to the United Nations in New York to discuss the importance of joining the BWC. On 19 February 2024, Ms. Nakamitsu sent letters to the three Permanent Representatives to reiterate the importance of reaching the universalization of the Convention in the Pacific;

(d) From 23 to 25 January 2024, in Brisbane, Australia, UNODA and the ISU organized a regional workshop on achieving the universalization of the Biological Weapons Convention in the Pacific. Delegations from Kiribati and Tuvalu participated in the workshop. During the workshop, presentations were given by UNODA and the ISU on the benefits and responsibilities deriving from the BWC, the necessary legal procedures for joining it, the key aspects of national implementation as well as the role of BWC national contact points. Representatives from Australia, Fiji, New Zealand and Samoa also participated in the workshop and shared best practices and lessons learned with regard to joining and implementing the Convention at the national level, thus facilitating regional dialogue on the BWC. The workshop was organized with the support of the European Union and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) of Australia;

(e) From 19 to 23 August 2024, UNODA hosted delegations from the Federated States of Micronesia, Kiribati and Tuvalu in Geneva. The three delegations also participated in the Fourth Session of the Working Group on the Strengthening of the Convention, which took place at the same time. The visit facilitated the participation of the two newest States Parties, the Federated States of Micronesia and Tuvalu, in the Fourth Session of the Working Group and provided Kiribati with exposure to BWC official meetings and the discussions taking place in the framework of its Working Group. The visit by the delegations of the three States was made possible with funding from the European Union; and

(f) In 2024, UNODA and the BWC ISU developed a Universalization Toolkit to assist those States which have not yet joined the BWC and those wishing to promote universalization of the Convention (BWC States Parties, BWC officeholders, civil society, etc.). The Toolkit is based on decisions and recommendations from official BWC meetings and assembles relevant information which is also available on the BWC website and the Guide to Implementing the Biological Weapons Convention. The Universalization Toolkit is available on the BWC website.

This outreach visit brought together senior national stakeholders and decision-makers involved in the BWC accession process in order to raise awareness about the importance of BWC universalization and to encourage broad national cooperation to that end. The visit was the latest step in a series of universalization and assistance efforts that began with the participation of a Chadian delegation in the Sub-Regional Workshop on the Universalization and Effective Implementation of the BWC in Central Africa and the visit of a high-level delegation from the Chadian Ministry of Foreign Affairs to Geneva in the margins of the BWC Meeting of States Parties in December 2023.

Comoros

10. Following the high-level parliamentary visit in March 2023 and representatives of Comoros attending the Regional Workshop to Support the Universalization and Effective Implementation of the Biological Weapons Convention in Northern Africa from 13 to 15 June 2023, the ISU and UNODA continued to be in regular contact with Comoros regarding its accession to the BWC. On 19 July 2024, the Decree no.24-102/PR authorizing the President of Comoros to accede to the BWC was approved by the National Assembly of Comoros. The ISU and UNODA remain in close contact with Comoros regarding the deposit of its instrument of accession with the BWC depository governments.

Djibouti

As a result of the outreach efforts, the Federated States of Micronesia acceded to the Convention on 12 July 2024, becoming the 187th State Party to the Convention.

Tuvalu

16. Tuvalu participated in the regional universalization workshop organized by UNODA and the ISU from 23 to 25 January 2024 in Brisbane, Australia. As a result of the outreach efforts, Tuvalu acceded to the Convention on 28 June 2024, becoming the 186th State Party to the Convention.
