Paragraph 145 should read

145. The incidence of violence against women in armed conflict, particularly sexual violence including rape, has been increasingly acknowledged and documented. Violence against women has been reported from conflict or post-conflict situations in many countries or areas.