- Friday, 24 March, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.: “Water Action Decade: accelerating the implementation of the objectives of the Decade, including through the United Nations Secretary-General’s Plan: Water Action Decade 2018–2028”

20. Each interactive dialogue will be presided over by two Co-Chairs at the ministerial level and above- one from a developing country and one from a developed country, to be appointed by the Presidents of the Conference – and will be facilitated by a moderator. The dialogues will be open to all conference participants, with designated seating: one delegate seat at the table and one advisory seat behind for States and the European Union, and one seat at the table for all other observers.
21. The interactive dialogues will be collaborative and multi-stakeholder in nature, with due regard for gender and geographical balance. They will begin with a panel discussion, followed by an interactive dialogue among participants. The panel discussion will be opened by the Co-Chairs, who will deliver remarks for five minutes each. The moderator will welcome the participants and deliver introductory remarks for three minutes and give the four panellists seven minutes each for their presentations. This will be followed by two lead discussants who will each intervene for five minutes. The moderator will then open the floor for interventions. After the interventions, the moderator will ask the panellists for final comments, and the Co-Chairs will officially close the meeting. Interventions from the floor in the interactive dialogue will be limited to three minutes. In their interventions, participants are encouraged to announce and register partnerships and voluntary commitments for the Water Action Agenda at https://sdgs.un.org/partnerships/action-networks/water.

22. The order of speakers for each interactive dialogue will be determined on a first-come, first-served basis, bearing in mind equitable geographical distribution while allowing for some flexibility, with priority given to States according to the level of representation, followed by intergovernmental organizations and other entities, associate members of regional commissions, United Nations specialized agencies, funds and programmes, NGOs, major groups and other relevant actors. It is envisaged that approximately 22 States (three minutes each), 4 intergovernmental organizations and associate members of the regional commissions (three minutes each), 2 United Nations system entities (three minutes each) and 3 NGOs, including major groups and other stakeholders (two minutes each), will be accommodated to speak in the interactive debate of each dialogue.

23. There will be no pre-established lists of speakers for the five interactive dialogues. Delegations will be invited to press the microphone button to indicate their wish to speak when the floor is opened for interventions. For planning purposes, participating States and the European Union are encouraged to express their interest in making an intervention in up to three interactive dialogues in the order of their preference by clicking on the “Register” button on the e-deleGATE portal, before 5 p.m. (New York time) on Friday, 10 March 2023. Representatives of accredited intergovernmental and other entities as well as associate members of the regional commissions are invited to indicate to the Secretariat (maranan@un.org) three interactive dialogues in which they would like to have a speaking slot, including the order of preference, name, title and level of participation, before 5 p.m. (New York time) on Friday, 10 March 2023. The list of participants in each dialogue during the interactive debate will be made available prior to the Conference.

24. Representatives of the United Nations system are also invited to indicate to the Secretariat (using the online form available at https://forms.office.com/e/NM0gs7FWDw) three interactive dialogues in which they would like to have a speaking slot, including the order of preference, name, title and level of participation, before 5 p.m. (New York time) on Friday, 10 March 2023. Representatives of NGOs, major groups and other stakeholders will also be requested to indicate their interest in having a speaking slot, through a dedicated form to be shared with all registered participants, by the deadline of Friday, 10 March 2023.

25. Summaries of the interactive dialogues will be presented by the respective Co-Chairs to the Conference at its closing plenary meeting and included in the final report of the Conference.
VI. Interpretation

26. The official languages of the Conference are Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. Statements made in any of the languages of the Conference will be interpreted into the other languages. Speakers are requested to deliver the statement at a speed that is interpretable. While delegations are generally given a time frame in which to deliver their statements, they are kindly requested to do so at a normal speed, to enable the interpreters to provide an accurate and complete rendition of their statements. When statements are delivered at a fast pace, the quality of the interpretation may suffer. It is suggested not to exceed the speed of about 100 to 120 words per minute (as a guide for statements delivered in English) in order to ensure that the statement is delivered at a normal pace.

27. Any speaker may also make a statement in a language other than the official languages. In such cases, the delegation in question must provide an interpreter from the non-official language into an official language. However, there will be limited facilities to accommodate non-official language interpreters on site. Delegations seeking to provide their own interpreters for non-official languages are requested to inform the Meetings Management Section of the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management well in advance by email (gmeets@un.org) and to copy the Interpretation Service (is-unhq@un.org). The Meetings Management Section will provide further instructions.

28. In order to facilitate the provision of interpretation and other services, delegations are requested to submit their statements (in PDF format) by email to estatements@un.org. The title of the meeting, the name of speaker and the agenda item should be indicated in the subject line of the email and in the heading of the statement. The statement should be submitted well in advance of the meeting, no later than two hours before delivery, and not in hard copy. The statements will remain embargoed until their delivery.

VII. Documentation

29. The official documentation of the Conference will be issued in Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish.

30. All Conference documents will be published on the Conference website. The Conferences and Summits section of the Journal of the United Nations will be produced in all six official languages and will also be available on the Conference website. Requests for limited hard copies of official documents should be made to ChiefMSS-DGACM@un.org.

VIII. Bilateral meetings

31. For bilateral meetings between Member States at the Head of State or Government or ministerial level, temporary booths will be available on the 2nd and 3rd floor balconies in the General Assembly Building during the Conference. Seating capacity is limited to two principals and six advisers in total.

Reservation system for bilateral meetings

32. An electronic reservation system will be activated through gMeets (https://conferences.unite.un.org/gMeets) on 12 March 2023 to provide for the equitable and efficient use of the facilities. Delegations are requested to submit reservations electronically by accessing https://conferences.unite.un.org/gMeets using their gMeets account username and password and clicking on the “Bilateral” tab. Delegations that require a gMeet account can email gmeets-helpdesk@un.org. The date and time of the bilateral meeting and the name of the other delegation participating in the meeting should be specified in the request. Reservations will be accepted for bilateral meetings of 20 minutes duration, on the hour and half hour. To prevent double bookings, only the delegations initiating the bilateral meeting(s) should submit the request.

33. Information about booth assignments will be provided one day prior to the meeting. Depending on the programme, every effort will be made to keep a delegation’s consecutive appointments in the same booth. Late requests will be accepted until 6 p.m. on the day prior to the meeting, and every effort will be made to assign a booth on the basis of the availability of space at that time. Delegations requiring further information regarding bilateral meeting requests should send their questions or enquiries to bilats-msu@un.org with a copy to tongx@un.org and gmeets@un.org. When sending an email, the wording “Water Conference-bilats” must be included in the subject line.

Internet and social media

85. Copies of press releases will also be available on demand, from the Media Documents Centre.

86. The United Nations News website (news.un.org/en) serves as the main portal for United Nations news and will be continuously updated in the six official languages, as well as Hindi, Kiswahili and Portuguese. In addition, select highlights of the Conference will be featured on the United Nations News web page in Urdu. It will also be available on the website of the Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit (www.un.org/en/media/accreditation/alert.shtml) and on Twitter (@UNMediaLiaison).

Side events sponsored by Governments, NGOs and other major groups, as well as other stakeholders and United Nations system and other intergovernmental organizations will be held from 22 to 24 March 2023. A link to the programme of side events for the Conference will also appear daily in the Conferences and Summits section of the Journal of the United Nations. Further details on the side events will be made available on the Conference website.

XIV. Medical services

Coronavirus disease (COVID-19)

94. All attendees who are unwell should immediately leave the complex and seek medical support from an external provider. Any attendee who becomes ill with COVID-19-like symptoms or who tests positive for COVID-19 after attending an event at the United Nations complex is strongly encouraged to notify their sponsoring entity or permanent mission, who will determine whether this information is to be shared with other attendees according to their own protocols. COVID-19 testing is available at street-side booths throughout the City, and rapid tests are available without prescription from pharmacies.

95. United Nations staff are to follow the current United Nations guidance on reporting positive cases via the EarthMed portal, after which the United Nations Headquarters medical clinic will undertake a risk assessment and determine next actions.

Emergencies/other care

96. During the Conference, an immediate medical response capability for emergencies will operate from the Headquarters medical clinic in the Secretariat Building and, depending on the circumstances, may be supported by New York City emergency response services. Attendees with any other illness are encouraged to see a local physician for further care, but may seek support from the Headquarters medical clinic on the fifth floor of the Secretariat Building for first aid for minor physical injuries.

97. Delegations with questions relating to medical issues, including support arrangements for Heads of State, are requested to send their enquiries by email to unhqclinic@un.org.

XV. Sustainability

98. The United Nations is taking a number of measures to minimize its environmental impact and maximize social, economic and environmental sustainability. All participants are encouraged to contribute to sustainability efforts.

99. Waste management is a particular concern, and the United Nations is determined to reduce and dispose of its waste sustainably. To this end, United Nations Headquarters implements measures to eliminate single-use plastics from the complex to reduce the impact of plastic pollution. Participants are urged to comply with relevant procedures and waste separation signage. More information is available at http://greeningtheblue.org/unhq, and questions can be directed to Greeningunhq@un.org. Participants are also encouraged to bring reusable bottles and mugs and to avoid disposable cups and plastic water bottles.

100. Participants are encouraged to minimize paper consumption. Participants are urged to use portable devices as the main way to access documentation, including the daily Journal of the United Nations, to limit demand for printed materials and reduce paper consumption. Participants are also encouraged to distribute non-official documentation electronically.

101. The Government of the Netherlands has provided funds for the purchase of carbon offsets related to air travel of participants in the Conference. The Conference Secretariat kindly requests all participants to cooperate in providing information about their means of arrival to and departure from New York. Further details will be made available on the Conference website.

XVI. Accessibility: arrangements for persons with disabilities

102. Delegations are requested to inform the Secretariat of the accessibility requirements of delegates in order to facilitate participation in meetings. Upon request, adjustments can be made to seating arrangements with a view to enabling the participation of persons with disabilities, in accordance with paragraphs 33 and 34 of General Assembly resolution 73/341. For individual requests, please contact the Meetings Support Section of the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management (email: accessibilitycentre@un.org; telephone: 212 963 7348/9) no later than three working days prior to the meeting.

103. The United Nations Accessibility Centre offers assistive information and communications technology to support those with auditory, visual or physical impairments. The assistive devices are available on-site or as a loan to participants with disabilities. The Accessibility Centre is located in the Conference Building (first basement level, by the Secretariat Building escalators). Please contact the Centre at accessibilitycentre@un.org for enquiries regarding available assistive tools and other requests related to accessibility accommodations. More information is available at www.un.org/dgacm/en/content/accessibility.
