Austria, Bangladesh, Cameroon, Slovakia and Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of): draft resolution

Commemoration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

The General Assembly,

Guided by the principles and purposes of the Charter of the United Nations,

Guided also by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights¹ and the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action,² as well as the International Covenants on Human Rights³ and other relevant human rights instruments,

Noting that 2023 marks the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the thirtieth anniversary of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action, and acknowledging the importance of these instruments for the promotion and protection of all human rights,

Emphasizing that these anniversaries offer a valuable opportunity to raise awareness and to reflect on achievements, best practices and challenges with regard to the full realization of human rights for all, without discrimination of any kind,

Recalling the continued practice established in its resolution 2217 A \(XXI\) of 19 December 1966, in which it decided to award at five-year intervals the United Nations award for outstanding achievements in the field of human rights,

Reaffirming the importance of ensuring the universality, indivisibility, interdependence and interrelatedness of all human rights and fundamental freedoms,

1. Welcomes the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the thirtieth anniversary of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action, and stresses the importance of all United Nations human rights mechanisms
